

I WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT I AM
EVER SO GRATEFUL TO YOU, I THINK THAT YOU ARE ABSOLUTELY GREAT.

Bo Corre

The only reason for our being here is because of you - what you have achieved here is so totally amazing - but these words don't seem to be enough.
We all owe so much to you

Hilary Crane

Whatever the politics, and Gawd knows there are always politics in such a vast undertaking and shared finance, Eldorado will have been your baby, and whatever happens ^{to} it and to you that will always be the case. Those of us that you and Tony cast will be undyingly grateful to you for the opportunity, and the adventure that it has all been and will go on being.

We're in different hands now, and they are Big Business, and Big Business can't afford to fail so we know Eldorado will succeed, and we all know, or firmly believe we know, that you will want us to make you proud of your baby -(whatever other splendours you give birth to!) and work loyally, and as hard for them.

Faith Kent

You are a super woman but thank God only mortal. We can only continue, because we are your creatures, with your blood in us.
I am more determined than ever to make the show the success I know it can be, given certain obvious amendments, which without you to guide us, I hope to God someone will have the sense to implement.

Roland Curram

Dear Lelia,
The news about you was greeted with a stunned silence from all of us. Your energy and drive is quite phenomenal, and my admiration for you is enormous.
Thank you for giving me the job,
I wouldn't have missed it for the world, or the opportunity to work with you. It now feels as if we've lost our 'Rock'.
